Application Commitment for Master's/PhD Programs at Peking University

I have thoroughly read and understood the application terms and requirements. I hereby certify that all information provided is accurate and accept full responsibility for its veracity.

I. Personal Information

1. Name as Shown in Passport:
2. Nationality as Shown in Passport:
3. Passport Number:
4. Mobile Phone Number:
5. Email:
6. Department/School of Interest:
7. Major of Interest:

II. Acknowledgement and Commitment

1. I have thoroughly reviewed the application information and carefully verified my personal circumstances against each requirement to ensure I meet all eligibility criteria and application conditions.
2. I have provided all information truthfully, accurately, and completely in a timely manner and have submitted all corresponding materials as required.
3. I shall pay close attention to any updates posted and/or sent by the school/department to which I am applying, and bear the responsibilities for any consequences due to my own oversight or negligence.
4. I will strictly comply with all rules and regulations throughout the application and selection process, acting in good faith and honesty without any fraudulent or deceptive conduct

I hereby fully agree to abide by all the commitments stated above and accept full responsibility for any consequences resulting from a breach.

Signature (handwritten):

Date:

NOTES:

1. This Commitment Letter applies to all international applicants for the Master's and Doctoral programs at Peking University for September 2027 enrollment. The right of final interpretation of this document resides with the International Student Division, Office of International Relations of Peking University.
2. Applicants must upload a complete and clearly filled-out PDF version of this Commitment Letter, bearing their original handwritten signature, together with all other required application materials to the Peking University online application system (www.studyatpku.com). Applications submitted without this Commitment Letter will not be reviewed.